After the latest spate of child murders, it's time to stop pussyfooting. We say...

BRING BACK THE ROPE!

LAST MONTH Britain was appalled to hear of 4 horrifying child murders occurring within just a few days of each other. First there was the raping and killing of 3-year-old Leoni Keating, kidnapped from a caravan site in Great Yarmouth. Shortly after this came the two deaths of 7-year-old Tina Beechook and her 4-year-old friend Stacey Kavanagh in Rotherhithe, South East London, for which the Mother of one of the two children, Mrs. Mirella Beechook, has been charged. Then immediately following came the news of the starving to death of tiny tot Heidi Koseda, who was shut in her room as a 'punishment' by her Step-father and left there without food for two weeks before being found dead there by police.

These gruesome killings, albeit taking place in entirely different circumstances, have highlighted once again the need for drastic steps to be taken to stem the mounting rate of murder and other forms of violent crime in Britain.

Our paper has made its views clear time and time again on this issue. We say that murderers should hang — just as it used once to be our custom to hang them. They are fit for nothing else — and certainly not being kept for the rest of their lives in security and comfort at the taxpayer's expense.

Of course this policy is opposed by most Members of Parliament, together with all the legions of sob-sisters, bleeding hearts, 'progressives' and 'liberals' who dominate the opinion-forming media in this country. These people will maintain (1) that the death penalty does not provide a deterrent to murderers, and (2) that it is anyway 'barbaric' and ought to be done away with in a 'civilised' society.

To the claim that the death penalty is no deterrent, we would say that the evidence points to the very opposite. Murders, particularly of defenceless little children, were far fewer when the would-be murderer knew that he or she had the gallows to look forward to if caught.

HEIDI KOSEDA
Starved to death as 'punishment'

And as for hanging being 'barbaric', we say that the kind of murders that have occurred last month are 100 times more barbaric. The very word 'barbaric' is taken by most people to mean any kind of brutal and vicious treatment of human beings. Well, that is all very well — if we were actually dealing with human beings.

SUB-HUMAN

But in fact the killers of these 4 children and others like them are not human — they are sub-human.

And as sub-humans they carry with them none of the normal entitlement to decent treatment that we accord to humans.

Tragically, these 4 little children will not be the last to suffer the kind of diabolical fate that they have suffered. There are going to be more — many more.

For these horrific crimes are going to go on and on, and get greater in number, while Britain continues to be ruled by the kind of softies who presently rule us — the sort of people who are always slobbering over society's criminals, misfits and other anti-social elements while caring less, apparently, about their victims.

In other words, we will not stop these murders while we continue to live in a climate of 'liberalism' and weakness in dealing with offenders against the law.

But we will only change that climate and restore the proper rule of law, in which the punishment adequately fits the crime, by political action to bring about fundamental political change.

ACCUSED OF TWO MURDERS
Mrs. Beechook (right) with husband Ravi. She is charged with strangling her own daughter and her friend.

LEONI KEATING
Raped and then murdered.

Our paper is pledged to work for that change by supporting the development and growth of a new political party, the British National Party, which, among other things, is pledged to bring back the death penalty for murders like those we have just witnessed last month.

Is this what you want? If so, give your support to the British National Party — which you can find out more about by filling in and sending off the form in the bottom right-hand corner of our back page.

Remember, it is no use just grumbling about these things. You will only change them by joining with us and fighting against them.

So we say: ACT NOW — IF YOU WANT TO ACHIEVE A COUNTRY IN WHICH YOUR CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN CAN LIVE IN SAFETY AND PEACE!

INHUMAN MONSTER
Nicholas Price (above) the stepfather of Heidi Koseda, accused of causing the little girl's death by starvation. He was beaten up while in prison.

FIRST HANDSWORTH — NOW BRIXTON!

Fresh rampage of burning and looting gives another jolt to pro-black politicians

THE HANDSWORTH RIOT was not just a 'one-off' affair. We knew it. The politicians knew it. The media knew it. The British people knew it.

Another conflagration was certain to come, and come it did in Brixton (surprise! Surprise!) on the night of September 28th. Once again gangs of Blacks went berserk and tore the town apart.

Of course,as usual, there were 'excuses'. This time the main excuse was the accidental shooting of a black woman during a police search for a suspect in an armed robbery investigation. There is no question that the shooting was unfortunate, but it was hardly surprising that such an accident should happen some time considering the conditions of violence and terror under which police in the Brixton area operate.

And anyway did this justify the subsequent attacks on premises all over the area?

Brixton proved, as Handsworth did before it, that unless a policy of REPATRIATION is adopted — and soon — Britain is going to go up in flames and smoke.

NATIONALISM THE ONLY WAY

AFTER THE Handsworth riots, Enoch Powell made a speech in which he rightly stated that the repatriation of coloured immigrants was the only possible solution to Britain's increasingly menacing race problem. He was shouted down by the rest of the Old Gang politicians and the mass media guttersnipes, who now appear to think it unnecessary to pay him any further attention.

For about 18 years now Mr. Powell has been on the scene as a lone public figure prepared to make controversial and courageous statements which strike a chord in millions of British people. It must be frankly recognised, however, that for all the bravery and honesty distinguishing him from the ordinary run of our ruling politicians neither he nor the British people have derived the smallest practical benefit from his activities as a Maverick within the political establishment.

Mr. Powell has pushed 'right-wing' and patriotic activity as far as can be pushed within the established political system. He had, at one time, everything going for him that any politician could possibly wish for, including a first-rate brain and the prestige of a former senior government minister's status. But the numerous tribes of traitorous and anti-British pygmies in Parliament proved too strong for him; they were able to isolate and drive him into the political wilderness, where he has remained and will remain.

The Old Gang were able to do this because they had at their disposal the one commodity that counts, and which Mr. Powell himself has never really seemed to understand: they had real POLITICAL POWER. They had on their side numerous organised forces. They controlled the machinery of our political parties, including the Tory Party from which eventually they succeeded in driving Mr. Powell. They had the well drilled packs of mass media hyenas, who can be set at the heels of anyone challenging their anti-British treason. They had, and still have, the revolutionary red mob, made up of degenerates and aliens, whose violence can be unleashed on any opponents not properly organised to meet it.

Thus Mr. Powell might say many things that are both courageous and right, and he may say them a hundred times over. He might get the enthusiastic agreement, in principle, of millions of individual British people. But he himself remains an isolated person within the established political set up, which is controlled by forces implacably hostile to what he represents, and determined to make no concession whatever to his views. Because of this he cannot possibly provide any sort of rallying point around which the millions who agree with him can be organised into a force capable of taking back Britain.

Unorganised and politically powerless, the British people will continue to be harrassed, terrorised and

AS CORRUPTION, MURDER AND ANARCHY STALK BLACK AFRICA, SOUTH AFRICA STANDS FOR CIVILISATION

A report by JOHN MORSE

JOHN MORSE, Editor of British Nationalist and writer of this report, spent some years in Africa, visiting both African-ruled and White-ruled countries, and speaks here from direct personal experience.

We will show the world what the Black Man can do when he works in liberty.
Patrice Lumumba
(Congolese Communist)

PREDICTABLY, South Africa's strong measures designed to curb the excesses of savage mobs of rioting Blacks incited by Communist agitators have been met with an outpouring of denunciation by Western 'Liberal-Democratic' governments, including our own. But the condemnations of Apartheid (i.e. the rule of civilised men) are exposed for the disgusting humbug that they are when seen in the context of the corruption, murder and anarchy which are the norm wherever in Africa black rule prevails.

OBOTE
Murderer and tyrant

A current example of this is Uganda. This country was once the prosperous gem of East Africa during the time of British colonial rule. By applying severe methods, the only ones possible with Africans, our colonial administrators protected the lives and property of the African population. This colonial administration was honest and efficient. It was the British who suppressed the practices of the Northern Muslim tribes of drinking the blood of murdered victims and eating their livers as a routine part of tribal ritual. It was British colonial administrators who eliminated slavery and the sadistic and bloodthirsty terror which the kings of the Southern Baganda tribe practised against their subjects.

CAMPAIGN OF TERROR

With Ugandan 'independence' in 1963 all this work was rapidly undone. It soon became evident that beneath the surface the black African character had undergone no change; the country's first President, Milton Obote, immediately launched a murderous campaign of terror against political opponents, while the corruption and incompetence of his regime reduced the country to a shambles, wrecking the constructive work of his white predecessors.

In 1971 Obote was ousted by Army Commander Idi Amin, the son of a tribal witch-woman from one of the Moslem tribes in the North. Under Amin the age-old magic rituals came back more into the open, including cannibalism, of which he was said to be a practitioner himself. He took pleasure in the massed killing of his opponents. The number of his victims, on one body count, reached 1 million. He murdered the Governor of the Bank of Uganda, a number of his cabinet ministers, the Anglican Archbishop (whom he is said personally to have beaten to death), his wife (whom he dismembered), and his son (whose heart he ate on the advice of a witchdoctor).

Amin was overthrown in 1979, to be succeeded eventually by the returning Obote, who built up his regime again on the usual tribal basis, employing elements of the army from his own tribe in a reign of terror against all others. The Red Cross gives a figure of over 300,000 murdered — out of a total population of half a million — in the Luwero Triangle alone. Obote's 4,000-strong, North Korean-trained force of 'political soldiers' have eliminated most opposing political leaders.

UGANDA: TYPICAL SCENE
This unfortunate fellow happened to belong to the wrong tribe and owe the wrong political loyalties.

PROFITS FROM LOOTING

Army units loyal to Obote have also looted and plundered members of tribes hostile to his regime, in particular seizing their coffee crops, which have then been illegally exported and sold abroad through East African Asian business agents. According to reports, Obote in this way amassed an illicit fortune for himself, at his country's expense, which he is said to have invested in property abroad so that he never end up poor if deposed again.

With Obote's overthrow in yet another military coup, the forces of the new military tyrant, Okello, have been settling old tribal scores in a fresh upsurge of killings. Okello's soldiers from the Acholi Tribe have been revenging themselves on Obote's, Langi Tribesmen. Needless to say, white residents of Kampala, who alone provide the skills and hard work to keep any sort of infra-structure in being in Uganda, have fallen victim to the violence and looting of the unrestrained black population.

Meanwhile in Britain the professional bleeding hearts, the 'liberal' mass media and the sleazy leftist denizens of the pop music industry feed us daily with tear-jerking stories about the famine in Ethiopia — in an effort to make us feel responsible for endlessly subsidising the population explosion both in that country and the rest of Africa. In fact in Ethiopia it is the same story of tyranny, corruption and incompetence as in Uganda.

Since 1977 Ethiopia has been under the control of a sadistic black Communist military dictator by the name of Colonel Mengistu Haile Mariam. Long before the present famine the regime of this psychopath, modelled on the Soviet system with Eastern Bloc aid, had already liquidated perhaps a million Ethiopians.

GUZZLING IN LUXURY

Against the background of bloody terror and famine, which, as usual, it is being maintained that it is the White Man's duty to relieve, Mengistu and his fellow red tyrants live like lords. On the 10th Anniversary, in 1984, of the revolution which overthrew Emperor Haile Selassie, celebrations were held which set the country back £100 million. At a cost of £20 million the centre of the capital, Addis Ababa, was bulldozed to create a ''People's Square''. Half a million bottles of Scotch, destined for the miltary rulers and their hangers-on, choked the ports of this famine-ridden country!

Mengistu's regime is currently fighting no less than six separate wars in various of its own provinces in brutal efforts to hold down Muslim and Christian tribes of North and South. With 50 per-cent of the total budget going on arms for this purpose, Ethiopia has the largest army in Africa, comprising 300,000 conscripts. Not only has the regime obstructed the distribution of Western aid to the famine-hit provinces — whose populations it is quite happy to see starving to death — but there is evidence that its own corrupt officials and soldiers plunder the aid.

Many other examples of black 'achievements' under 'freedom' and 'independence' could be quoted from any African country outside South Africa, and the story would be the same as in Uganda and Ethiopia. This is why South Africans mean to uphold their system of Apartheid — the arrangement of separate ways of life for all the different racial groups — while firmly keeping the apparatus of law and order in competent and responsible white hands and maintaining the White Man's final veto in all areas of life.

AFRICAN CONTRAST
Above: a scene from starving Ethiopia, with bodies of victims laid out ready for burial; Below: Black township in South Africa, with Africans playing and talking happily with well-constructed dwellings in background.

The South African White Man does not want to see his kinsfolk and his heroic work of creation over centuries put at the mercy of primitive, incompetent and often savage black Africans, who, given 'independence', have time and time again brought back the law of the jungle.

In common with the rest of Africa, South Africa has an exploding non-white population. As things are, with Whites in charge, this population does not starve to death, as in Ethiopia and other countries to the North, even though South African Blacks, admitted to work in the White Man's economy, are grossly unproductive and have to have their standard of living subsidised from the general taxation to which the productive Whites naturally contribute heavily and disproportionately. In effect South Africa operates a 'welfare state' for Blacks, many of whom have queued up to get in illegally from neighbouring 'independent' African states — if they cannot do so legally.

MENGISTU
Guzzling in luxury while his people starve.

The suggestion that the Whites in South Africa must hand over their country by giving political 'rights' to an increasingly numerous and burdensome black population is obviously outrageous — when it is realised from examples elsewhere in Africa that this would soon lead to starvation and collapse. The truth is that the White Man, whether in South Africa or Britain, owes the Black Man nothing, while the Black Man owes the White Man everything.

So we of British Nationalist say to the people of Britain:-

By loyal to our fellow Whites! Stand by white civilisation! SUPPORT SOUTH AFRICA!

AIM RIGHT!

Our paper, though it strongly opposes non-white immigration into Britain and supports a policy of the humane repatriation of non-white immigrants, is against racial hatred. We urge all those who are angered by the fruits of multi-racialism not to vent their anger on the immigrants but to direct it against the politicians who have created the problem.

Queers spread AIDS plague among normal people

THE LETHAL homosexual disease AIDS, which destroys all bodily resistance to diseases generally, is now being spread on a significant scale to normal people.

Public concern is now being voiced in the United States and Britain — especially by parents with children in schools where, as has happened in a number of cases, youg pupils have the symptoms of the disease. Insufficient is known about AIDS to say with certainty that it could not be transmitted by contagion to other children.

One thing is for sure, and that is that AIDS, which is now showing signs of assuming plague proportions, initially arose among the expanding number of practising homosexuals in the aftermath of the repeal of laws forbidding homosexual acts and the general relaxation of conventions and customs unfavourable to homosexuality. The explosion of homosexual activity following this change led to a dramatic growth in the incidence of sexually transmitted diseases. This was particularly so as queers started to form communities in such places as San Francisco and some of our larger towns and cities in Britain — where they now form another powerful component of the massed ranks of human garbage littering those areas, howling for their so-called 'rights' at the expense of decent society, which all go to make up the political loony left.

The AIDS plague is thought to have originated in the United States as a result of some of these filthy degenerates taking themselves to the Caribbean island of Haiti, where they indulged their perversions with the local negroes. The AIDS virus is said to be commonplace in negroes of Central African origin.

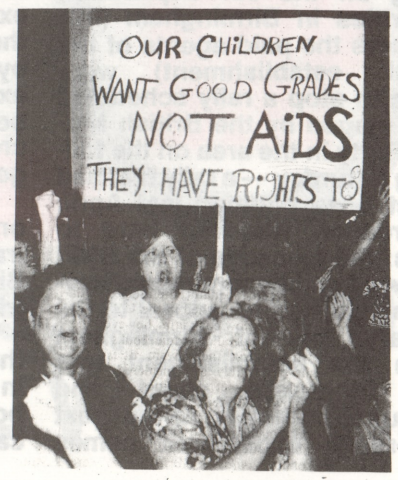
An AIDS epidemic is now getting underway in Britain. There have been instances of parents keeping their children away from school because of the presence of infected fellow pupils. Meanwhile in America the number of verified cases of the disease has reached 13,000, and doubling every 10 months. AIDS is invariably fatal. 73 per-cent of cases involve male homosexuals and bi-sexuals. The latter can infect women, who, as mothers, can pass it on to children before they are born. Thus can even newborn babies become AIDS victims.

In addition, normal people can be made to catch the disease by means of transfusions of infected blood. Up to a million Americans may have been exposed to the virus without knowing it. It can take up to six years for the symptoms to show. In the meantime an infected person may continue to spread the disease.

The attitude of queers over this murderous plague (started by themselves) is significant. California's aggressive 'gay' community, subsidised from public taxation, recently published a brochure entitled Safe Sex, in which they adamantly defend their right to continue their filthy practices notwithstanding the grave health hazards to the whole population that these create. The brochure was denounced by a Los Angeles county official as "plain, hard-core pornography."

Nature always takes its revenge on nations that permit such violations of its iron laws. It will be one of the major tasks of a Nationalist Government to take whatever measures are necessary to eliminate homosexuality from our society.

WE ARE RESOLVED THAT BRITAIN WILL BE CLEANED UP — IF NEED BE, RUTHLESSLY.



CONCERNED PARENTS

CND gets new propaganda gift as Tories plan to subvert Britain's sovereignty.

C.N.D. and Labour Party pacifists and disarmers have recently been given yet another propaganda gift by the Tory Government. A secret agreement, drawn up by the Thatcher and Reagan Governments in 1983, gives priority to United States military needs in the event of a future war in Europe. In such an event Britain would in effect be occupied by an American army three times the size of its own and armed with extensive police powers. Under this agreement US forces would have the right to enforce martial law in Britain, without reference to our own Government and with legal immunity.

Under the agreement British civilian labour would be conscripted under emergency powers to serve the American war effort, if the United States became embroiled in a conflict in Europe with Soviet Russia. Civilian supplies of food, fuel, building materials, transport and construction equipment, together with civilian hospitals, would all be handed over to American control.

The left-wing traitors of the Labour Party and CND, who want Britain to have no defence at all, have not been slow to exploit this planned betrayal of Britain's national sovereignty and independence. Previously, Defence Secretary Heseltine had already made these disarmers a similar gift when he authorised the installation of American cruise missiles in this country, while renouncing any British right to control their use.

INSIDIOUS AIM OF C.N.D.

CND aim insidiously to demoralise the British people to the extent that they will ultimaately abandon their nuclear arsenal. This would deprive Britain of the ultimate means it has of protecting its national interests at home and around the world. Britain would in such a situation be in a militarily inferior position even to such countries as India, which has nuclear weapons, or (potentially) Argentina, which has the capacity to produce such weapons! In Europe British disarmament would be no guarantee against nuclear attack.

SUBSERVIENCE TO U.S.

But the Tories are leading Britain just as fast down the path to national impotence. The sole alternative they have to offer to the left-wing variety of national treason is their own, albeit different, variety, which is total subordination to the United States — which, when all is said and done, is a foreign power! Even Britain's nuclear weaponry is largely of American manufacture, while Britain's foreign policy has been reduced to a mere extension of that of Washington. This has been a continuing process worked for by Britain's decadent ruling establishment since World War II — and all in the name of a 'special relationship' with America's rulers. Mrs. Thatcher has perpetuated this weak and cowardly humbug with her usual whining cant about defending "freedom" and "democracy".

Since the end of the war, and all in the name of "making the world safe for democracy", Britain has been stripped, by an insidious process, of her world empire and power, had her industrial structure destroyed and her territory flooded with millions of coloured immigrants. And the international climate in which all this has happened has been one promoted and maintained just as much by the cosmopolitan clique controlling the United States as by the rulers of the Kremlin. America has in fact never been slow to enforce this new world order in collaboration with its so-called Soviet 'enemy' and at Britain's expense. Just one instance was when Washington and Moscow combined against Britain in the Suez crisis of 1956. Another was when the same two 'super powers' combined to dismantle white rule in Rhodesia, formerly a proud British possession.

And, in the Tory view, we are now supposed to accept, as part of the same process, the subordination of our country's sovereignty to the United States. There are few decent Britons who will be pleased at such a prospect.

When it comes to defence, there are only two things worth fighting for: our land and our people. Any effective defence policy must recognise that the British people can only be motivated to adopt the necessary measures for national defence by the powerful idea of national self-preservation. Britain must defend he own territory and her own independence. This can only be done by her own people (civilians as well as soldiers) organised and equipped with whatever weapons, nuclear or conventional, are necessary for the purpose — and supplied by her own factories.

That is the only outlook on defence which can defeat the pacifist treason of the left.

DISARMERS EXPLOIT TORY PROPAGANDA GIFT
Joan Ruddock, Chairwoman of CND, is seen here calling at a nuclear weapons factory at Burghfield to ask how she and other neighbouring residents would fare under secret emergency powers placing Britain within an American zone of occupation.

Australians vote to keep Union Jack

OUR COUSINS in Australia have in recent years had a series of treasonable governments every bit as bad as here in Britain. The latest one, a far left administration under Mr. Bob Hawke, has been doing everything in its power to pull Australia away from its British heritage and make it an outpost of Asia. Part of this anti-British campaign has been a drive to get rid of Australia's old flag, which contains a Union Jack in one corner as a symbol of the British connection.

Despite the intense propaganda in favour of changing the flag, a recent poll conducted by The Australian newspaper resulted in 77.1 per-cent of readers favouring the old flag with the Union Jack.

Our correspondent Dr. J.C.A. Dique, commenting on this result in his newsletter News and Views (Queensland) says that the number sending in votes to the paper would have included a disproportionately high number favourable to a change of flag, so that the true consensus in the country against change is no doubt even higher.

YOUR LETTERS

Sir, — Concerning all the current hoo-ha about the sinking of the Rainbow Warrior, it strikes me that the most distinguishing thing about the action of the French agents involved was its stupidity. Surely they did not think they could accomplish anything by such an act, for even if nobody was caught the whole event would make ideal propaganda for the nuclear disarmers and discredit the French nuclear weapon programme.

Whatever we may think about the sinking of the boat, let us at least acknowledge one thing: that France's policy of maintaining and improving her independent nuclear deterrent is absolutely right, as is the case also with our own nuclear weapon stockpile. In fact we should go further and, like France, make ourselves absolutely independent of the Americans in this vital field of self-defence.

V.T. FORD (Mrs.)
Redcar, N. Yorks.

Sir, — Yesterday I had my car radio on and heard the programmers put in a 'filler', as they do between main programmes when there are a few minutes to kill. The filler consisted of a letter from the French historian De Tocqueville to his compatriot Count Arthur De Gobineau, who, as you probably know, was one of the early pioneers of race science and a recognition of innate race differences.

De Tocqueville's message to his correspondent was to the effect that he should not be able to reconcile his racial views with his professed faith as a Christian.

Nothing particularly remarkable about this — except that it just struck me how the BBC never — but never — loses an opportunity to get in a bit of its race-mixing poison, even in fillers between programmes such as the one I heard.

JUDGE LETS ASIANS GET CLEAN AWAY WITH UNPROVOKED ASSAULT ON WHITE YOUTH

Justice once again perverted in the cause of 'race harmony'

THE LENIENT TREATMENT of coloured offenders in Britain's courts, part of the legacy of the infamous Scarman Report, is reaching unbelievable proportions.

The latest whitewashing job was done by Judge Uziell-Hamilton at Snaresbrook Crown Court in East London recently. Four Asian youths who attacked and wounded a white youth, chosen at random, totally without provocation were freed by the Judge on the basis of their claim that their community lived against a background of "racial harrassment". Each of the Asians received the derisory sentence of 180 hours 'community service'.

The Judge accepted that Darren Stevens, aged 17, the victim of the attack, was not part of any gang and had not offered provocation of any kind for the assault, which took place in Chingford last September. But the weapons used against Stevens included a golf club, a wheel brace and a car aerial. Yet the Judge refused to impose prison sentences on the Asians because their attack on Stevens was racially motivated by revenge against Whites!

Seeman Choudry, Asif Husain and his brother Aslam, and Paul Ahmed, all from Stoke Newington, admitted malicious wounding. More serious charges that they did so with intent to cause grievous bodily harm were dropped.

The court was told that the four Asians were driving through Chingford at 1 a.m. when they saw Stevens and two of his friends. They got out of the car and without warning started to chase the young Whites. The other two youngsters escaped, but Stevens was cornered and beaten up by the Asians with their various weapons.

Stevens had to be taken to hospital by ambulance and received several stitches for headcuts.

After his arrest Asif Husain asserted under questioning that Asians in general were being assaulted and that "we just thought to ourselves that we should do something about it, and we just came across these three white guys and that's it." Husain claimed to have been attacked himself and said he wanted revenge. He and the other defendants said that the three youngsters they had attacked had given them "dirty looks".

Interviewed after the hearing, Husain alleged that Asians were the victims of "racialist abuse" and "racist remarks", and said that they should "do something about it", without reference to the police.

According to his father Mr. Robin Stevens, young Darren is still afraid to go out at night and had been bedridden for two weeks after the attack. Of the ridiculous sentence on the Asians, Mr. Stevens said: "I feel they got away with it. I don't think that was justice."

Judge Uziell-Hamilton appears to have held that the motive of indiscriminate racial revenge almost entirely excused this brutal and vicious attack. One can only guess at what sort of a line the same judge would have taken if the attackers had been white and their victims Asian or black, and they had claimed the same motive and justification for their actions!

No dount people like Judge Uziell-Hamilton think that by sentences like this they are doing their own little bit for 'race harmony' in Britain. In fact such a verdict constitutes, in effect, a green light for just about anyone to go beating up anyone they like with the confidence that, if they belong to a 'racial minority' group and their victims are native white Britons, they be sure of a soft sentence, if indeed any sentence at all!

CONTRAST the treatment given to these Asians to that received by Ian Barton, 27, who was arrested while walking down a street in Handsworth, Birmingham, during the rioting there, carrying a claw hammer seen by the police to be sticking out of his back pocket. Barton had not attacked anyone but was carrying the weapon solely for the purpose of self-defence.

He was jailed for a month.

Why the difference between these two sentences? Why were Husain & Co. let off jail after committing a vicious attack and Barton sent to jail after attacking nobody? Perhaps it has something to do with the fact that Ian Barton is WHITE.

BNP foil attempted meeting ban in Birmingham

IN THE WAKE of the Handsworth rioting on the 9th September, authorities in Birmingham (like all others the paid agents of the 'liberal' establishment) were frantic to stop a rally scheduled to be staged by the British National Party in the area on the following Saturday — a rally that had in fact been planned last April. The reason was not hard to guess: the message of the BNP, in view of much more recent developments, had an appeal to the ordinary folk of Birmingham which the establishment was very frightened about and anxious to suppress. As the great multi-racial experiment comes crashing down in ruins all over Britain, those responsible for that experiment are terrified of facing the consequences of their folly by means of the racket being exposed and the British people being offered a lead in the creation of a cleaned-up, resurgent, all-white country.

The voice of the BNP was the one voice which, above all, the traitors did not want to hear in Birmingham that week, so they tried to silence it.

Intense pressure was put on the owners of the Friendship Hall in Erdington, which had been booked for the rally, and they capitulated — leaving the BNP, as its enemies had intended, without any meeting place.

By the resourcefulness of the local organisers, however, an alternative venue for the meeting was found at the last moment. People were redirected from the old meeting place to the new and the rally was held.

Nearly a hundred people were present to hear Ian Sloan, David Bruce and John Tyndall speak, and the event was widely reported in local newspapers, as well as getting a write-up in the Sunday Mirror.

B.N.P. CAMPAIGNS AGAINST ROAD NAME CHANGES

LAST MONTH British National Party activists in East London were at work energetically campaigning in protest against the scheme by the Hackney Council to rename certain streets in the area. One of the streets, known for many years to local Cockneys as Britannia Walk, is planned to be called 'Shaheed-E-Azam Bhagot Singh Avenue' (just imagine the locals getting their tongues around that one!) And who is (or was) Shaheed-E-Azam Bhagot Singh? Why, he was a Sikh terrorist who made a hobby of murdering British soldiers in India during the 1930s and who was rightly executed for his crimes.

The BNP printed a special leaflet for the occasion and distributed 2,000 in the area, also staging a mini-march through Hoxton Market. This campaign by the Nationalists earned a very warm local response.

Apparently the nutty left Hackney Council intends to name yet more streets in the area after its own pets, including Mahatma Gandhi and the deranged Black who shot himself in Stoke Newington Police Station, Colin Roach.

BNP activists have assured us that they are going to find it difficult; any such names that go up are not likely to be visible for very long!

NATIONALISM THE ONLY WAY

attacked by their various enemies, as the established political parties — Tory, Labour, Liberal and SDP — abandon them. It is the fate of unprotected sheep to fall victim to the wolves.

There is only one possible rallying point around which any kind of national resistance can be organised: that is the Nationalist movement. Only through this movement can the British people be forged into an effective force to be reckoned with by their enemies.

Britain's future is shaping up as a nightmare of blood and terror. The only question that matters now is whether the British people can be properly mobilised for the coming struggle of national life or death — with the chance to fight and win.

There is no easy way, no way of 'tricking' the enemies of this country and the White Race. There is no way of getting even the smallest concessions from the traitors that rule us. There is no alternative to absolute victory for our race. It is the hard choice of "either—or".
